

Press Release

Bossard Group Changes in Executive Committee

Peter Erlangsen, a member of the executive committee and head of parts of Bossard's European organization, will be leaving Bossard as at December 31, 2008.

Dr. Daniel Bossard, currently still vice president sales and marketing for the Group, will take over from Peter Erlangsen as of January 1, 2009 and, at the same time, become a member of the executive committee. Tee Bin Ong has been appointed as the new head of Group sales and marketing.

Daniel Bossard, born 1970, has a doctorate from the University of St. Gallen. After serving as head of Group sales and marketing for the past three years, he will now take over responsibility for Bossard's Northern and Eastern Europe business units as well as for the export business ex Switzerland. With this appointment he will also become a member of the executive committee. Daniel Bossard was managing director of Bossard Denmark from 2002 to 2004; prior to that he was in charge of building up the e-commerce sector for the entire Group.

Tee Bin Ong, born 1968, has been working for Bossard since May 1999. He successfully established Bossard's subsidiary in Malaysia. In July 2004 he took over the management of Bossard's business with global EMS customers, with subsidiaries in China, Malaysia, Thailand, Singapore and Mexico. As an experienced specialist on the sales front, he will take over from Daniel Bossard as vice president of Group sales and marketing.

For further information please contact:

David Dean, CEO

Phone +41 41 749 6590

E-mail investor@bossard.com

www.bossard.com

Zug, October 24, 2008