

Annex: Your Rights

If you have consented to the processing of your personal data, you can always revoke your consent with effect for the future. Such a revocation does not affect the legality of the processing carried out based on the consent until the revocation.

According to the applicable data protection law, you may have the right to (i) information, (ii), rectification, (iii) deletion, (iv) restriction of processing, (v) data transferability and/or (vi) objection to processing. The aforementioned rights may be restricted by national data protection law. To exercise these rights, please contact us as described in section III.

In detail:

(i) Right to information: You may have the right to ask us to confirm whether personal data about you is being processed and, if this is the case, a right to information about this personal data. The right to information includes, among other things, the processing purposes, the categories of personal data that are processed and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data is disclosed. You also may have the right to receive a copy of personal data that is the subject of the processing. However, this right is not unrestricted, because the rights of other persons may restrict your right to receive a copy.

(ii) Right to rectification: You may have the right to request the correction of incorrect personal data concerning you. Taking account of the purposes of the processing, you have the right to request the completion of incomplete personal data, including by means of a supplementary declaration.

(iii) Right to deletion (“right to be forgotten”): Under certain circumstances, you have the right to ask us to delete personal data concerning you and we are obligated to delete the personal data.

(iv) Right to restriction of processing: Under certain circumstances, you have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal data. In this case, the corresponding data is marked and we only process it for certain purposes.

(v) Right to data transferability: Under certain circumstances, you have the right to receive the personal data concerning you, which you have provided to us, in a structured, standard and machine-readable format. You also have the right to send this data to another person responsible without hindrance from us.

(vi) Right to objection as per article 21 General Data Protection Regulation

For reasons that result from your particular situation, you have the right at any time to object to the processing of the personal data concerning you that is occurring as per article 6 paragraph 1 letter e (data processing in the public interest) and f (data processing based on legitimate interests) of the General Data Protection Regulation. If you object, we will no longer process your personal data, unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing that outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing serves the assertion, exercising or defense of legal claims.

If personal data is processed for the purposes of direct mail advertising, you have the right at any time to object to the processing of personal data concerning you for the purposes of such advertisement. This also applies to profiling if this is associated with such direct mail advertising.
